

Group Counseling II: Transpersonal Wilderness Therapy

Group Counseling II provides further theoretical and experiential understanding of group purpose, development, dynamics, counseling theories, approaches, methods, and skills. Studies include comparative models, evaluation methods, research, professional preparation, ethical and legal considerations, and applications for working creatively in outdoor and wilderness settings. Must be taken concurrently with CNSW728.

Course Number: CNSW761

Unit: 3.0

Program: GRAD Transpersonal Coun