

BA Wisdom Traditions Capstone

The Capstone class gives students the opportunity to create and present a capstone project that demonstrates student learning and integration within their chosen concentration. The range of possible capstone projects is broad and includes research papers, assistantships and internships, and original interactive projects. This course reviews religious studies as an academic discipline, with a special emphasis on applying religious studies methodology to religious traditions and phenomena encountered in their major study. Special emphasis is placed on written and oral expression, integrative understanding, and the relationship between religious traditions and the personal spiritual understanding/journey. The principle that both outer and inner knowledge contribute to one's path, which was introduced at the beginning of the student's journey, is brought to fruition. The particular focus of the second half of the class is the final preparation and presentation of the senior project.

Course Number: REL489

Unit: 2.0

Program: GRAD/UNDG Religs Studies