

Yoga V: Yoga Teacher Training

Yoga V, in conjunction with Yoga IV, is designed to provide the foundation and training needed for students who aspire to teach yoga. This class examines the various topics essential to being a skilled yoga teacher, including yoga therapy; how to safely and effectively teach asana and pranayama; the principles of effective speech; ethics; alignment; how to make adjustments; the sequencing of postures; knowledge of the yoga tradition and philosophy; and the cultivation of one's authentic self-expression. Students also gain regular practice and experience in teaching yoga. Prerequisite: TRA333. Cross-listed as TRA574. TRA433 must be taken simultaneously.

Course Number: TRA449

Unit: 3.0

Program: GRAD/UNDG Trad Estrn Art