Naropa Composers and Improvisers Orchestra

An advanced level of performance ensemble that generates and performs students’ original music and interdisciplinary work. The orchestra develops compositions and improvisational structures based on the contemplative principles and awareness practices offered in the Music program, and prepares these pieces for performance at the Works in Progress concert, the Student Arts Concert, and other venues of our choosing. Prerequisite: MUS230 or MUS400. Others considered by audition.

Course Number: MUS420
Unit: 3.0
