Contemplative Community Retreat

This two-day retreat at Shambhala Mountain Center takes place every other fall semester. The practices of sitting and walking meditation, tonglen, Maitri Space Awareness, and contemplative play bring students, faculty, and staff together in community with a sense of purpose and friendship. Open to Contemplative Psychology students only. A required retreat orientation occurs in advance of the retreat and serves to prepare students for success in the PSYB343W retreat environment. Co-requisite: PSYB314. Special fee for room and board.

Course Number: PSYB343W
