Religion and Mystical Experience

This class explores the essential core of the world’s wisdom traditions: their mystical teachings, rituals, and esoteric practices. Special attention will be given to the nature of mystical experience characterized by a direct encounter with Ultimate Reality or the Divine and to the variety of its manifestations in and out of the world’s major religious traditions.

Course Number: REL210
Unit: 3.0
Program: Religious Studies