Contemplative Practice Intensive: Religious Studies Students

This twenty-eight-day group contemplative practice intensive can be done at an established contemplative center in a faith tradition of the student’s choice: Christian monastery, Hindu ashram, Tibetan Buddhist meditation center, Jewish contemplative retreat center, Zen monastery, etc. The retreat gives the participant an opportunity to practice a prescribed discipline while living in community with others in a contemplative environment. The choice of retreat is to be approved by Religious Studies faculty and school director beforehand. The contemplative practice intensive is a non-credit requirement for MA in Religious Studies: Contemplative Religions [with or without Language] and Master of Divinity programs. Students should complete the contemplative practice intensive during the winter break of their first year or the summer following their first year.
