Interreligious Dialog

This course introduces the student to the creative potential of interreligious dialog for expanding one’s theology and communicating effectively and compassionately across the American religious spectrum. After developing savvy views of dialog, students learn essential skills and protocols applicable to a variety of dialog settings. Classes also include dialog practical workshops.

Course Number: REL779
Unit: 3.0
Program: Religious Studies