

Introduction to Drawing

This studio class focuses on developing skillful use of drawing techniques, paired with an investigation of mind and perception. Drawing is presented here as a method for discovering the beauty and profundity of ordinary things. A graduated series of individual and collaborative exercises is presented for both beginning and experienced drawers.

Course Number: ART125

Unit: 3.0

Program: UNDG Visual Arts