Poetics Seminar: Queer Lit

This course investigates texts that queer. We read literature and theory that questions, complicates, deterritorializes, defines, curates, and inhabits the genre of queer literature. We consider, for instance, the bilingualism of gender and genre, liminal space, sexuality and textuality, the politics of syntax and sex, the body, the not-body, and more.

Course Number: WRI733
Unit: 3.0
Program: Writing and Poetics ALL