

Master's Paper Seminar II

A continuation of CNSS834, designed to assist students in writing their master's project paper. Class content addresses the students' particular needs as the project develops. Particular emphasis is placed on scholarly writing and publication requirements. The course culminates in an oral presentation of the students' work on Master's Paper Presentation Day, designed to be a capstone experience of the students' time in the program. Prerequisite: CNSS834.

Course Number: CNSS835

Unit: 1.0

Program: GRAD Somatic Counseling