

Special Populations Interventions: Wilderness Therapy Settings

This course explores therapeutic interventions, primarily from adventure therapy and ecotherapy. Focus is on issues related to trauma and addictions/substance abuse. We examine various models of addiction recovery, specifically as they apply to diverse populations. Learning happens initially through demonstration and participation, followed by students practicing with peers. WT Only.

Course Number: CNSW707

Unit: 2.0

Program: GRAD Transpersonal Coun