

Student Teaching: Early Childhood

As the culmination of the education program, this internship course pairs each student with an experienced teacher who practices contemplative preschool pedagogy. Interns have multiple opportunities to practice the skills needed to teach a preschool class. Regular meetings with the supervising teacher, the teaching team, and program director help to establish the skills and habits of a professional preschool teacher. Open to program students only. Prerequisites: EDU245, EDU330, EDU380, EDU404, and EDU430. EDU420 and EDU310 can be taken simultaneously with or prior to EDU450.

Course Number: EDU450
